Congratulations to our students who have accomplished some fantastic achievements in the last week. Our music students performed magnificently at the Network Concert at the Clocktower Centre on Monday night and a huge congratulations to our Track and Field team for winning the Keilor Division Athletics competition for the second year in a row! Congratulations also to Lazar Trajcevski in Year 12 who featured in the local newspaper last week for painting a mural at the Brimbank Bicycle Education Centre. The mural was a project Lazar undertook as part of his Personal Development Skills VCAL subject. Lazar’s drawings were submitted to Brimbank Council for approval before he did the painting. The mural will be seen from the roadway and be lit up at night. Well done Lazar! It is great to see so many of our students aspiring to achieve and obtaining excellent results. Well done also to our staff for supporting our students and helping them to achieve their goals.

We will be holding an opening ceremony for our Trade Training Centre on Monday 26th October. The Parliamentary Secretary for Education, Hon. Scott Ryan will be attending to officially open the new building. The ceremony will commence at 10am and all are welcome to attend.

Once again I have applied for our students to participate in the Victorian Young Leaders to China program for March/April 2016. This is the program that has supported our students to study in China for 6 weeks over the last three years. We will call for expressions of interest from Year 8 Chinese students once we are advised whether our application has been successful.
To continue our focus on teacher development and improving student achievement, I have engaged a professional consultant, Jane Pollock, to work with us next year. Jane is the author of “Improving student learning one teacher at a time”. We also have an AVID consultant from the US with us this week to visit our AVID classes and measure our progress towards its implementation.

A reminder to parents that students must be wearing their summer uniform in Term 4. The College Board also recently approved for boys to wear their shorts during winter. Families may purchase uniform items at PSW in Westwood Drive, Deer Park or try the secondhand shop online at www.sustainableschoolshop.com.au.

Below is an article from our Parentingideas Club membership which you may find interested to read. Our new website is currently under construction and will feature some great articles and tips on raising children during their adolescent years.

Taking responsibility – the mark of true leadership
by Michael Grose

In the wake of questionable behaviours among some high profile sports people lately it’s reasonable to examine the place of personal responsibility. Taking responsibility for your behaviour is the mark of true leadership. However shirking responsibility or shifting blame to others is a national sport in many western countries.

It’s not my fault

“It’s not my fault” can be heard in court rooms, political rallies and in sporting tribunals everywhere as blame for a transgression is shifted away from the individual and placed on a scapegoat. It’s little wonder than some children are experts at shirking personal responsibility.

Lack of personal responsibility is shown when children find excuses or blame others for their misbehaviour. It’s shown when siblings are blamed for starting fights, parents for children’s school lateness and classmates for misbehaving at school. Anything or anyone but themselves to blame!

Most parents want their children to be responsible for their actions. Taking responsibility means that a child sees a problem and fixes it. A child who takes responsibility helps out regardless of how many times they have helped before or whether they caused a situation.

When a child complains that the toilet roll is empty then he or she can be invited to take responsibility for it. Similarly, if the bread bin is empty, the fire is out or the living room floor is a mess then the message should be that they ‘do something’ to rectify these situations. When a child is late for school, forgets to hand in homework or deliberately hurts a classmate, even though some teasing occurred, then he or she needs to shoulder the blame and take responsibility for their actions.

Sounds tough but this is the approach to take if we are to promote a true sense of responsibility, initiative and accountability.

In families, some children and young people can become adept at ducking their responsibilities. It’s smart management to share the workload at home using rosters and other organisational strategies.

Don’t tell me, fix it!

But in the myriad of informal situations around the house then it’s useful to take the ‘don’t tell me, fix it’ approach. Next time a child responds to your request for help with the classic line “but it’s not my turn” I suggest that you look them straight in the eye and say, “You know, you may be right but isn’t it lucky that you are so willing to help” and simply walk away. No buts, no arguments. You’ll do so, knowing that your refusal to rescue your child is providing an opportunity for him to take some initiative and personal responsibility for a situation that may not have been to their making. But that’s what leaders do!

Quick quiz

Does your child take responsibility?

Does he/she:

1. Usually help at home without being paid? Yes - 2 points No – 0 points
2. Take initiative and fix things or help even if he won’t receive any recognition? Yes - 2 points No – 0 points
3. Blames others when things go wrong? Yes - 2 points No – 0 points
4. Own up straight away if he/she has done the wrong thing? Yes - 2 points No – 0 points
5. Start games and initiate activities at home or school? Yes - 2 points No – 0 points

Score:

10: Leadership material. What a child! 6-8: Knows about taking responsibility but needs a reminder. 0-4: Needs someone on his shoulder all the time! May benefit from being given more responsibility

R U OK Day - Out of Uniform Day $2 Donation – Friday 11th September 2015

R U OK Day is a very important day as it encourages people in our community to have a conversation about mental health. The day is dedicated to inspiring people to regularly ask each other if they are actually okay. It is extremely important for both students and staff members of the college to know that they have moral support within the school community. Each student and staff member is strongly encouraged to wear an accessory that is yellow to show the importance of the special day and the support it offers. So please join in and participate to show your support of this cause on the day.

Pick up and drop off

Could parents/guardians please refrain from parking in neighbours’ driveways when dropping off and picking up students.

7E Chinese Museum Excursion

Ni Hao. On the 13th of August my classmates and I travelled by public transport to the Chinese Museum in Chinatown in the city. When we arrived we had a quick stop to a shopping centre nearby that had a lot of tiny looking restaurants. Most of us had lunch there. Then we entered the museum and had a guided tour. During our journey we made stops to observe the ancient items used in Australia by the Chinese when they arrived during the gold rush days. We also came across the time of foot binding. Chinese foot binding seemed a very cruel thing with the injuring of young girls feet that were folded over and remained bent forever. Foot binding was also known as ‘lotus feet’ and was the way of preventing further growth of the girls’ feet. It was considered a sign of beauty to have small feet. In the tenth century food binding was widely practiced. Throughout the tour we discovered: early Australian History, information about the gold rush, Chinese Festivals, immigration, Chinese performing arts, language, well known immigrants and we walked along the huge dragon that is used for Chinese New Year and Moomba.

We highly recommend you visit this museum if you haven’t yet. Thanks to Ms Woolves, Mr Ding, Mr Hewitt and Maxine for organising this excursion and for coming along with us.

Senior Music at our Annual Music Concert

Commendations are due to our senior music students who performed at our annual music concert recently.

It was particularly entertaining to see the grand collaboration of the Year 10 and Year 9 concert bands perform a Jazz Arrangement of Watermelon Man from the VCE group prescribed list of works. The Year 10 Concert band also performed three other pieces from the VCE Prescribed list, ‘St Thomas’, ‘Chameleon’ and ‘Senior Salsa’. Congratulations are due to Dashmir Demiri, Daniel Jezovita, Tangi Pulis, Luke Schembri and Anonh Vongprachanh for their excellent performances on the night.

A special mention is due to our VCE student Florence Leasiolagi-Mona for a stellar vocal performance of Stevie Wonder’s ‘Lately’. It brought tears to many an eye as it brought the house down with a roaring applause.

Finally congratulations with praise are due to our VCE students preparing for the external exams in October for performing at excellent standards. Nicole Brimblecombe performed Piazzolla Tango and John Dam performed Shadows.

You all made us very proud.

VUSC In The News
Congratulations to Lazar who made the front page of last week’s Star Weekly:

“Brimbank Bicycle Education Centre is always a hive of activity … and not just for cyclists.

Victoria University Secondary College Year 12 student Lazar Trajcevski (pictured) designed and began painting a mural at the centre last Friday, as part of his Personal Development Skills studies.

His drawings, which were submitted and approved by Brimbank, will form the mural which will be seen from the roadway and also be lit up at night.

As well, VCAL students from Taylors Lakes Secondary College are spending 10 weeks down at the Keilor Downs cycling hub, working on tasks ranging from bike maintenance to upgrading the gardens.

Plans are also afoot for a Men’s Shed at the centre, which could involve the refurbishment of a W-class tram.”

Careers News

Tax File Numbers
Any student will need a tax file number if he/she starts work (part-time and full-time) and all students planning on going on to tertiary education will require one when they start.

Importantly, current Year 12 students are reminded that they cannot enrol in a CSP (Commonwealth Support Place) course at university without a Tax File Number, so it is worthwhile getting an application submitted early!

Students must now apply for a TFN online and have their identity verified through an interview at a participating Australia Post office. To apply and find out about participating Post Offices, visit Tax File Numbers at www.ato.gov.au or go to the link on the school’s Careers Website (under Important Info).

SCHOOL CAREERS WEBSITE
Our school’s Careers website is an invaluable resource for students and parents to access. Students should have logged into the student secure area where there are many important resources including newsletters, resume builder, cover letter builder, practise on-line job application, career interests test etc. If students have not yet logged in, please see the Careers team for assistance.

Current Year 12 students in particular should be consulting current newsletters and open day information.

AIS CAMP – DO NOT MISS THE HIGHLIGHT OF YOUR SCHOOL YEAR!!!!

Reminder that progressive payments need to be made to the Office for the Australian Institute of Sport Camp. If students/families are having any questions regarding the AIS camp, can you please contact your academy coach.

Note: Please also note that places to attend the camp have been limited to 20 students and staff, so as you could understand we have many students missing out on this fantastic opportunity. This will help secure a spot on the camp. If you would like to organise a payment plan, please contact me on the details provided below.

Note: as bookings will be confirmed by the date provided, no refunds will be provided after this date.

Soccer

VUSC soccer development program played a friendly match against KDC last Tuesday. Our continued participation with KDC has proven to be a valuable partnership in developing student talent. Both teams came away with realistic learning experiences. Both teams played high level soccer and displayed clinical tactical objectives. It was a pleasure to watch the boys and girls from VUSC displaying such talent. Unfortunately on this occasion we didn’t come away with a win but much was gained from the day.
